FOREWORD

To enclose between two covers what we mean when we say "Tarboro High School," to put into a lasting form the growth in learning and understanding, the joys and disappointments of the 1961-1962 high school year - from such attempts evolves the 1962 TAR-BO-RAH.

MALCOLM LINWOOD BAKER

"Buck"

April 7, 1944 - July 4, 1958

Buck was an outstanding student, well-loved by teachers and fellow classmates. His two loves were his church and his sports. These loves are kept alive by the Malcolm Linwood Baker Award, presented each year to the person who best exhibits Christian qualities on the playing field.

IN MEMORIAM

BERNICE MAY ANDREWS

"Bernice"

May 29, 1944 - January 22, 1961

Bernice, a good student and a leader in her class, participated in the Glee Club and the Future Homemakers of America. She was very popular among her classmates and teachers. She was always kind, considerate, and willing to give her time and help to all.

Mr. Lindo Spencer

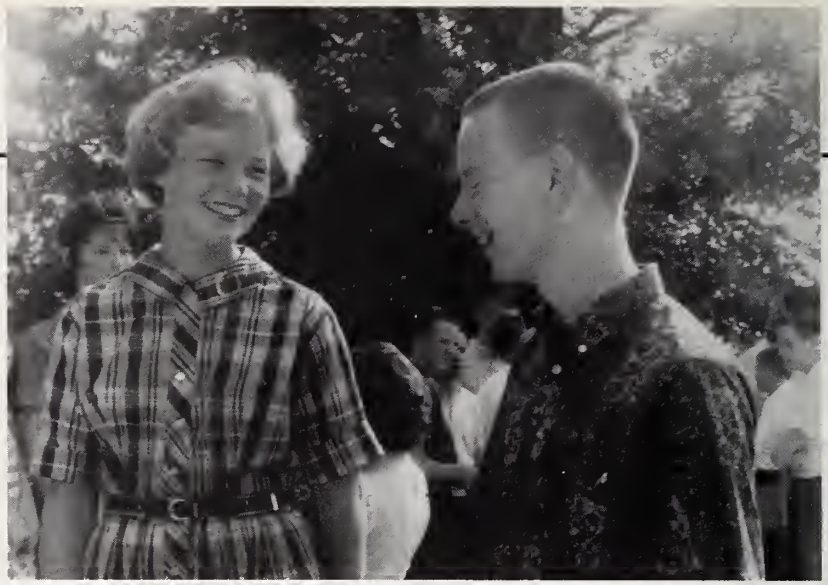
DEDICATION

DEDICATION

We, the staff of the 1962 Tar-Bo-Rah, recognize one of the most beloved members of our faculty. He has given unselfishly of his time and knowledge to inspire every youth that he encounters. He is a person deeply dedicated to his profession; this is best expressed by Chaucer, "Gladly would he learn and gladly teach." As a coach he exhibits the qualities of good sportsmanship both to the players and the spectators. His good sense of humor and cheerful attitude endear him to all. We will always remember the friendly warmth of his greeting and the untiring devotion he has shown us as our teacher, friend, and advisor. It is with genuine feeling of admiration and respect that we dedicate this annual to MR. LINDO SPENCER.

SPECIAL FEATURES

BEGINNING OF SCHOOL



The first day of school - this is the day which marks the official end to vacation. It is with some degree of pleasure that the students return to see the new teachers and to greet their classmates.

Francis Lawrence and Vic Creech are happy on their first day at high school. They represent the large group of freshmen who are anxious to see how their schedules will run.

The sophomores feel much more than a year older and a great deal wiser. The juniors are "old hands" at it all. The seniors are beginning to exercise their new importance.

The students wait outside for that first bell which will summon them in for a year of learning.

Yes, the teachers' work begins earlier than the students'. This is the first official meeting of the Tarboro teachers for the school year 1961-1962.

College Day gives all seniors and juniors the opportunity to talk with a representative from the college or school of their choice.

Miss Whitehurst, guidance director, aids Jean Truitt, Katherine Cherry, Kate Smoot, and Tommy Ferrell as they are informed of the resources at North Carolina Wesleyan College.

The representatives bring pamphlets to help familiarize us with their school.

Tommy Ferrell, Ben Gammons, and Bill Pitt are getting information from the University of North Carolina.

COLLEGE DAY

PEP RALLIES

Having a lot of fun, students participated with enthusiasm at the pep rally, renewing their school spirit for the homecoming game.

James Ray Parker, President of the Junior Class, introduced the princesses and hopeful candidates for homecoming queen.

Cheering at the pep rally and also at the homecoming game was a combined squad of the Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders led by Mary Jo Pittman, Varsity chief, and Sally Carlisle, Junior Varsity chief.

The Student Council, sponsor of all homecoming events, has the responsibility of organizing and lining up the parade. Getting the floats and the large number of candidates in the proper places was a big job.

The parade is finally on its way! Riding on the float which they designed and decorated are the Junior Varsity cheerleaders.

The Tarboro High School band spent many hours so that they could depict the musical aspect of the homecoming festivities.

PARADES

FLOATS

On the student council float were the three princesses elected to represent the classes and the mystery queen - "Who will she be?" From the freshman class was Nancy Sasser. Representing the sophomore class was Sandra Sanderson. Elected from the junior class was Sue Joyner.

This float, decorated by the F.H.A., caught the eyes of many.

Here it is - the winner of the contest for the best float. Prepared by the varsity cheerleaders, the theme portrayed was pleasing to all Tarboro fans. The Tarboro Tiger was going to capture and cook the Rocky Mount Blackbird.

CANDIDATES

Riding in the parade was the candidate for homecoming queen from the Annual Staff, Ann Brisson.

Elected to represent the National Honor Society as a homecoming candidate was Daisy Walston.

Another of Tarboro High School's beauties running for homecoming queen was Susan Beasley sponsored by the Key Club.

Representing the Order of Demolay in the election race for homecoming queen was Kate Smoot. Riding with Kate at the moment was Martha E. Anderson, sponsored by the band.

The Future Homemakers of America selected Terri Manz as their candidate for queen.

Governor Terry Sanford visited Tarboro on homecoming day while on tour of eastern North Carolina. Diplomatically he wished luck to both teams. This visit added gaiety and excitement to the day.

NOMINEES

Homecoming queen of 1960, Phyllis Webb, was the honored guest for the parade. At the game that night, Phyllis crowned the new queen of 1961.

Touchdown! The Tigers scored against the rival Blackbirds of Rocky Mount in the homecoming contest.

Here she is - the climax of the day was complete! Mary Jo Pittman was the newly crowned homecoming queen of 1961. Representing the Camera Club, Mary Jo was a surprised and pretty queen to reign over the remainder of the festivities.

QUEENS

INITIATIONS

Key Club president, Stumpy Havens, led Steve Lanier, Zeb Cummings, Bill Mewborn, Kenneth Driver, Gary Conway, Steve Cooper, George White, and Billy Thigpen in taking the Key Club oath.

Both new and old Future Homemakers enjoyed this initiation. The new members, dressed as some famous character, did a pantomime; as a result the initiators had to be able to guess who each person was portraying.

Daisy Walston, President of the National Honor Society, surprised senior Mary Francis Thomas by tapping her into this organization.

Mr. J. R. Owens, addressed the student body at the Key Club induction ceremony. Mr. Owens was president of the Tarboro Kiwanis Club, sponsor of the Key Club.

Future members of the Monogram Club posed in a sneak preview with their initiators. Those joining the club are Johnny Purvis, William Purvis, Frankie Freuler, George White, Mike Fillmore, Craig Livesay, Robert Stanley, Ronnie Lilley, Allen Baker, Johnny Sasser, Dana Wooten, Bob Barnhill, Charles Dew, Bobby Brown, Herbert Brown, Charlie Harrell, and Frank Hurst.

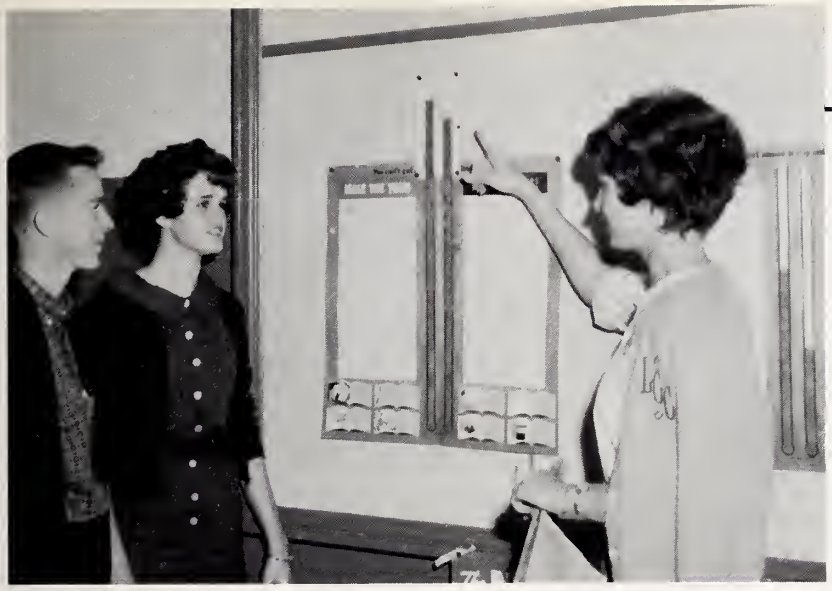
The juniors and seniors, recognized by the faculty as exemplifying characteristics of character, scholarship, leadership, and service, have just been tapped into the National Honor Society. Inductees were as follows: Borden Hooks, Mary Francis Thomas, Louise Carlise, Pat Wynn, Joyce Williamson, Dana Wooten, Jean Peedin, Sue Joyner, Julia Anna Leigh, Joan Hull, and Judy Decker.

RAISING MONEY

One of the main money-making projects for the senior class is the paper drive. Seniors Mac Fountain, Mike Fillmore, and Reynolds Bailey are bailing paper.

The senior grade parents of this year, as those of years past, are an irreplaceable asset to the graduating class. With their help, funds are raised for the trip to Washington, D. C. Grade-parents for this year are: Mrs. W. L. Beasley, Mrs. George Pennington, Mrs. Forrest Walston, Mrs. Bruce Russell, Mrs. Katherine Ruffin, Mrs. Wayne Manz, Mrs. Vernon Conyers, Mrs. J. Watson Smoot, Jr., Mrs. W. J. Warren, Mrs. Edna Knox. Not pictured are the other valuable members: Mrs. Dail Holderness, Mrs. Virgil Truitt, and Mrs. O. F. Thompson.

As an aid to the secretary and the principal, several girls work in the office during their study hall. Answering the telephone is Louise Briley.



Juniors use the sale of magazines as the means of making money for the Jr.-Sr. Examining the homeroom progress reports are Charles Godwin, Joan Hull, and Louise Carlisle, top salesmen.

A highly anticipated moment for all Juniors is the arrival of class rings. John Jenkins found the moment draw nearer as he was measured for his class ring.

Freshmen aid the teachers in preparing bulletin boards and classroom displays. Francis Lawrence, Jane Robinson, and Joe Pitt prepared a Christmas bulletin board in a freshman homeroom.

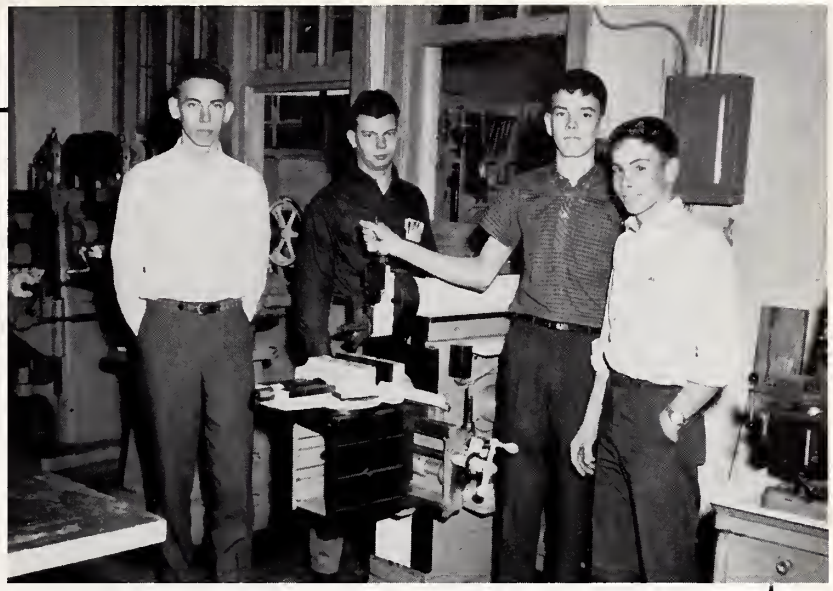
AWARDS

Coach Doug Alexander presented the football awards to Gus Andrews and Billy Freuler. Billy received the Most Valuable Player award; Gus received the Most Aggressive Player award.

The Tiger Booster Club honored the 1961 football team with a banquet. Secured as speaker for the occasion was Jim Hickey, football coach at the University of North Carolina. Mr. Hickey entertained everyone with an interesting talk and some films.

The crowd that was present at the football banquet enjoyed both the meal and the program. This large group had gathered to pay their respects to the T.H.S. football team.

These boys came away from the Industrial Arts Fair in 1961 with top prizes. The winners were Dickie Causway, Larry Hathaway, Eddie Patterson, and Sam Long.



Many students exhibited their newly found scientific talent in the annual science fair.

Students winning top honors at the 1961 Science Fair were Travis Sassar, Johnny Lawrence, Bill Pitt, Betsy Fowler, Mary Ella Ruffin, Mary Francis Thomas, Sandra Weeks, and Louis Clark. Betsy Fowler was a winner at the District Fair in Greenville and then competed at the State Science Fair in Durham. Science teachers were Mrs. McNair, Mrs. Eason, Mr. Collins.

WINNERS

PLAYS

Joan Hull and Alan Brill are a bit amazed at the antics of Vann "Henry" Taylor.

Two old maids that captured everyone's heart were Julia Anna Leigh and Patricia Wynn.

John Rimmer and Bobby Holland knew the knack of tickling the audience's funny bone.

The Junior play of this year's senior class was an enjoyable comedy "Willie's Weekend." Tommy Knox, Sandra Byrd, and Fran McDowell took care of the preparations for Willie's visit.

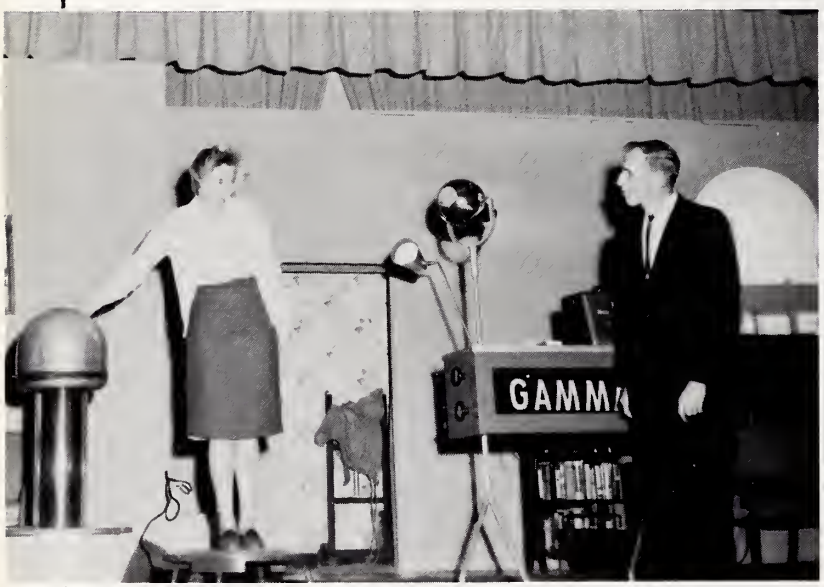
JUNIOR-SENIOR

The juniors, seniors, and their dates enjoyed the Junior-Senior intermission party given by the junior class. All of that good food was prepared by the grademothers of the host class.

Dancing to the music of the Melodaires at the Junior-Senior were Jimmy Harrell and his date, Becky Russell and Doc Teele, Borden Hooks and Sallie Carlisle, and Barbara Fields and Vann Taylor.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

In a special assembly program a representative from Oak Ridge explained and demonstrated facts about atomic structure. This demonstration proved to be interesting and enlightening. Everyone went away with some new bit of knowledge stored away.



It's unbelievable that several thousand volts were run through Susie Bell's body. The charge that she gained caused her hair to stand on end.

On Veteran's Day T.H.S. enjoyed the flag raising ceremony presented by the American Legion. The speaker for the occasion was Senator H. G. Shelton.

In the Christmas spirit, the students contributed food and money for a Christmas gift for the janitors and maids. Kenneth Driver, student body president, presented the packages to them at the Christmas assembly program.

These students campaigned for the person of their choice during the campaign speeches of the candidates for student body offices.

In the spirit of democracy Grigg Sheffield and Bill Pitt voted by secret ballot for student body officers.

AND EVENTS

HAPPENINGS

An important part of a student's daily life is the rush to gain a prominent place in the lunch line.

Snow brought a welcome vacation from studies. Both the young and the young at heart enjoyed the sledding and such seasonal activities.

The football team prepared to board the activity bus for the trip to Williamston to play the last game of the season. For the senior squad members this was the final game of their high school careers.

HONORS

Football coach Doug Alexander presented to Gus Andrews the certificate that he received for being selected as a member of the National High School Wigwam All-America. Gus was one of seventy-seven boys chosen from all over the United States by a vote of high school coaches and sports writers. He also received the honor of being asked to play in the North Carolina East= West game in August.

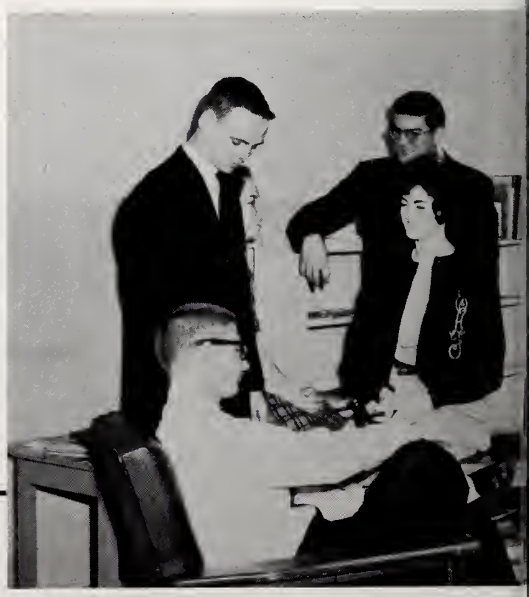
Mary Jo Pittman was queen of the Christmas parade festivities. Having been selected Tarboro High School Homecoming Queen, she was selected for this honor. Other homecoming candidates were participants in the yuletide parade.

GIRLS' STATE

Representatives from T.H.S. at Girls' State in June, 1961, were Carolyn Barnes, Betsy Fowler, Penny Lee Martin, Mary Frances Thomas.

The annual Girls' State, sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, was held at Woman's College in Greensboro. The four girls selected for this honor were lucky indeed. During an exciting and informative week, they learned much about our local and state governments and acquired the fundamental skills of a well-rounded active citizen. Included in these activities was a trip to see our state legislature in session at Raleigh.

Demonstrating the principles of parliamentary procedure that they learned were Mary F. Thomas, Betsy Fowler, Carolyn Barnes, and Penny Lee Martin.



Comparing knowledge gained and reminiscing of good times are the Girls'

BOYS' STATE

Annually on the campus of the University of North Carolina, nearly four hundred boys assemble for a week of work and fun at Boys' State, which is sponsored by the American Legion. The main purpose of the week is to learn more about government. In addition, Tarboro High School's representatives meet the elite of young men from North Carolina. They are taught by the best speakers that each separate field has to offer. It is a week that is unforgettable to anyone who has the privilege of attending.

Attending Boys' State from T.H.S. were Steve Lanier, Rudy Allsbrook (sitting), Larry Hathaway, and Joe Powell (standing).

and Boys' State representatives.

Members of Boys' State were taught to utilize parliamentary procedure as shown by Steve Lanier, Joe Powell, Rudy Allsbrook, and Larry Hathaway.

MARSHALS

Daisy Walston, chief marshal, heads the procession that will lead the seniors out of their high school career into the world.

Marshals chosen on the basis of academic achievement are Daisy Walston, chief, Carolyn Barnes, Jean Truitt, Fran McDowell, Penny Lee Martin, Becky Russell, and Betsy Fowler.

COMMENCEMENT

Beginning the traditional Class Night, the junior girls presented the seniors with the daisy chain.

The mascots of the class of 1961 led the seniors on their final march.

STUDIES

A better understanding of the present through knowledge of the past is the objective of the study of history. Courses in World and American History, civics, American Government, Problems of Democracy, Sociology, and Economics aid in meeting this goal.

In Government classes under Mr. Spencer, students discover how our American government functions.

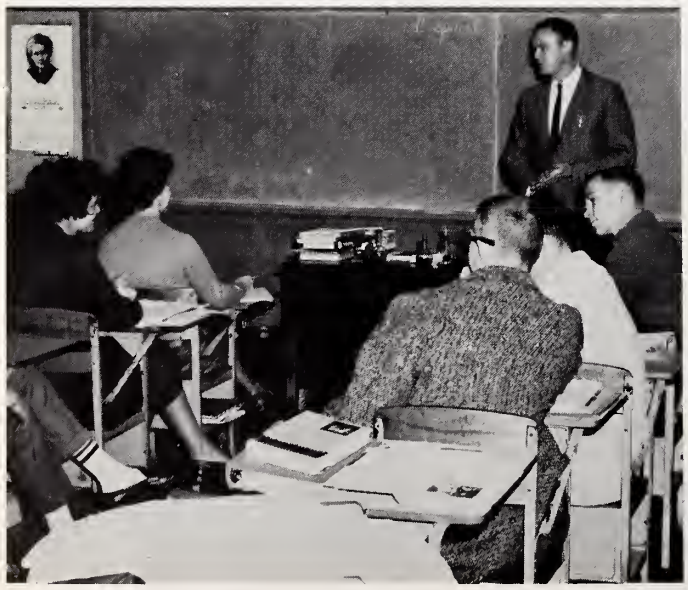
SCIENCE

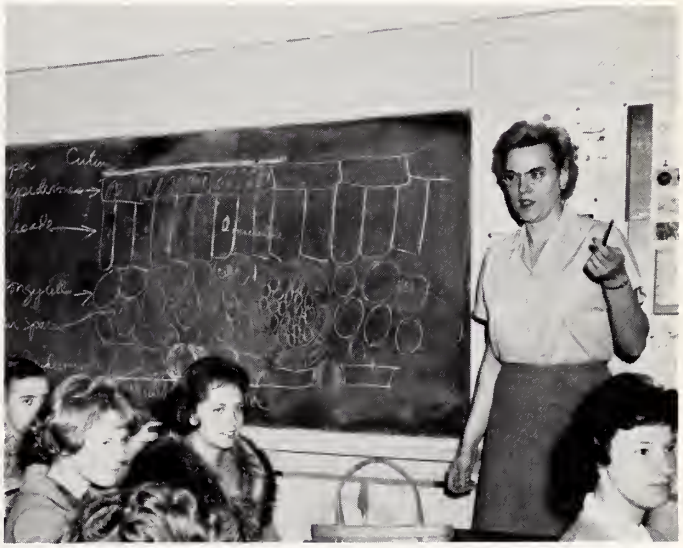
Today, in the Age of Science, with important discoveries and trips to outer space almost common occurances, there is a great need for a better understanding of the mysteries of science. This challenge is met by courses in General Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.



Physics students labor in scientific exploration under the guidance of Mr. Adams.

Having Physical Science under a T.V. instructor proves surprising to many Freshmen.

Is General Science getting to be more fun each year? Perhaps that is the point Mrs. McNair is emphasizing.



All right, Biology students, all together now - the head bone's connected to the neck bone, the neck bone's connected to the back bone, the back bone's connected. . .

Serious future scientists make great (?) discoveries in the chemistry lab.

FRENCH

In preparation for college, the study of a foreign language is a necessity. To meet this need the curriculum offers two-year courses in both French and Latin.

LATIN

Latin, the record of the ancient Roman Empire expressed in the language of its people, offers a giant step down the road to a full English vocabulary.

Latin I students prepare to take one of the familiar vocabulary tests.

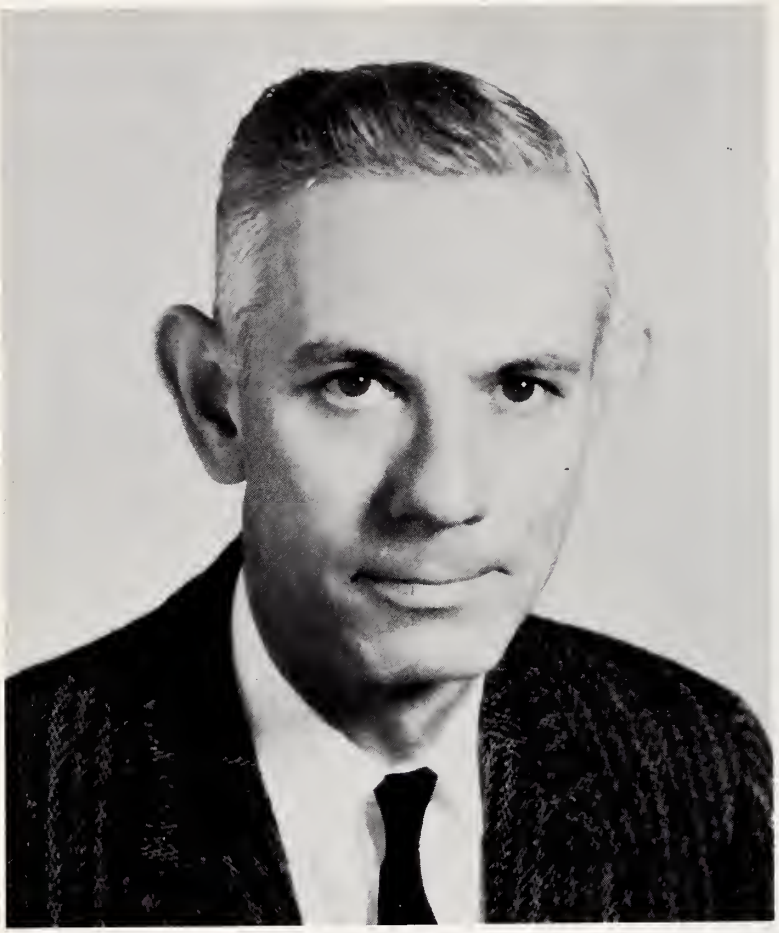
Mr. Clements listens attentively to the reed section to iron out flaws in composition.

ADMINIS



MR. C. B. MARTIN

In the last five years as Superintendent of Tarboro City School Mr. C. B. Martin has worked diligently to raise the school standards. Better equipment and a better school environment have been provided. Intensive studies of curriculum and curriculum aids have been instigated.

Miss Grace Whitehurst as guidance counselor provides a helping hand in the students' needs. She is always ready to aid in planning schedules, selecting a college, job placement, and the many other problems of the students.

MISS GRACE WHITEHURST

TRATION

During the past four years, Mr. O. H. Forrest, as Principal, has fulfilled his obligation of running the school successfully by devotion to his duties, active interest in school life and student advancement, and untiring efforts to promote scholastic achievement.

MR. O. H. FORREST

MRS. BETTY WINCHESTER

Mrs. Betty Winchester, Secretary to Mr. Forrest, fills many important functions in our school office. Upon her shoulders fall the tasks of keeping record cards up-to-date, publishing daily bulletin notices, greeting guests, answering the many phone calls, and keeping everyone posted on the routine of our school.

SERVICE PERSONNEL

The bus drivers travel far and near to provide transportation to and from school. At the rear of the bus for a change are Jimmy Dail, Thomas Manning, Robert Batchelor, Ramona Roberson, Linwood Webb, Rudy Allsbrook, and Mike Dail.

Every school day our new cafeteria serves about five hundred meals planned by state nutritionists. Helen Knight, Delores Braddy, Tillie Williams, Ruby Wooten, Margaret Barnes, and Mary Wilson, manager work hard to meet this schedule.

SCHOOL BOARD

The School Board, although it is not seen by the students in everyday school life, is the guiding force by which our school functions. With the welfare of the school and the student body in mind, the School Board employs able administrators and staff and provides an excellent academic and extracurricular program. The members are: Mr. Harry Palmer, Jr., Mr. Bruce Russell, Mr. Pembroke Nash, Chairman, Mrs. W. J. Livesay, Mr. Rawls Howard, and Mr. J. C. Powell.

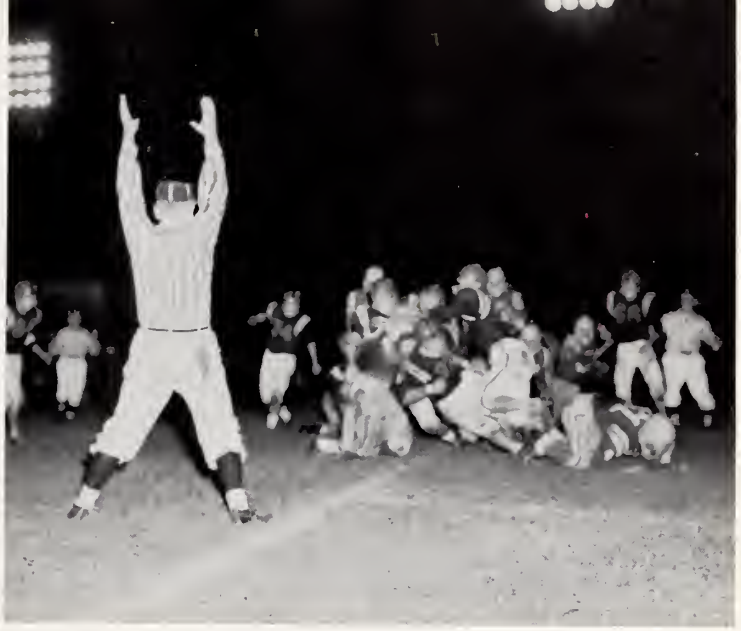
The Tarboro Tigers opened their season with a double header, losing to Kinston and Elizabeth City. Following that twin defeat, however, the team showed much improvement.

Although the Tigers only managed to compile an even 5-5 overall record and a 3-4 Conference record which was much less than they had expected at the beginning of the year, the 1961 football season was a success. For Tarboro was the only team in the tough Northeastern Atlantic Conference to defeat the Conference champions, Greenville, with an overwhelming 20-7 victory.



Gus Andrews goes over for T.D.

Tigers gain additional yardage against New Bern.

T.H.S. VS. NEW BERN: The mighty Bears of New Bern used a massive second half attack on Tarboro's offense to roll to a 21-7 victory.

T.H.S. VS. ROCKY MOUNT: The classy Blackbirds of Rocky Mount swooped down on the Tigers for a revenging victory before a capacity crowd.

T.H.S. VS. KINSTON: The Red Devils of Kinston dominated play, both offensively and defensively to defeat the Tigers in the season's opener.

T.H.S. VS. ELIZABETH CITY: Elizabeth City's Yellow Jackets used an overpowering attack against the Tarboro Tigers defeating them 26-13.

T.H.S. VS. JACKSONVILLE: Tarboro High used a tremendous offensive attack, and outstanding defensive play to mark their first victory of the season.

T.H.S. VS. HERTFORD: The tough Tiger offense shined in this game to crush the Hertford Indians 33-13.

T.H.S. VS. GREENVILLE: An inspired group of Tarboro Tigers struck fast and hard to defeat previously unbeaten and heavily favored Greenville.

The Tarboro Tigers opened the season's conference play with a defeat from Greenville. Following that defeat, however, the team, with outstanding shooting and rebounding, turned tiger and won the next six games.

Blessed with two good floor generals in Co-Captains Billy Freuler and Mac Fountain and a trio of shart shooters and rebounders in Gus Andrews, Mike Fillmore, and Jack Bobbit, the Tigers will definitely be strong contenders for the N.E.A.C. basketball title.

This pass was incomplete as New Bern defenders closed in.

Although the Junior Varsity football team lacked experience, they had the will and courage to continue to fight. However, this team had one remarkable aspect . . . eleven starting freshmen. Despite the fact that they lost every game, defeatism never overcame these fighters.

SPRING

With several lettermen and All-Conference pitcher Billy Freuler back this year, the baseball team hopes to have a successful year.

Returning lettermen are (kneeling) Charlie Harrell, Frankie Hurst, and Gus Andrews. Standing are Dana Wooten, Jimmy Hall, Frankie Freuler, and Billy Freuler.

Members of the track team are Allen Warren, Johnny Sasser, and Bill Mewborn. Not pictured are Gus Andrews, Billy Frueler, and John Jenkins.

With several returnees from last year's track team, which placed eighth in the state, there should be a substantial amount of talent for this year's meets.

Bill Mewborn is caught by the camera in this thrilling high jump.

SPORTS

The Golf team is composed of members of Tarboro High who have spent many hours perfecting their golf game.

Practice is essential to all members of the golf team. John Rimmer prepares to tee off for the second hole.

The Tennis team, with all of its last year's netters returning, is expected to make a good showing this year.

Members of the tennis team are I. V. Thompson, Vann Taylor, and Alan Brill.

COUNCIL

The Student Council, the school's student governing body, represents a united effort toward student leadership and democracy. Endeavoring to co-ordinate student activities and organizations, as well as promote personal honor and responsibility in the governing system, the Student Council represents the student body to the faculty and community.

Helping the student body realize the significance of Christmas, the Student Council portrays the Birth of Christ.

Among the services of the Student Council are the management of the supply store, presentation of the Christmas Pageant and collection of gifts for the maids and janitors, maintenance of the parking lot, and publication of a student activities bulletin.

Past-president, Freddy Williams introduces new candidates for Student Body officers.

With much enthusiasm the students eagerly campaign for their favorite candidate.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Membership in the Tarboro Chapter of the National Honor Society is awarded to outstanding Juniors and Seniors who meet its academic and personal standards. Having achieved an average of 91 per cent, members must then be recommended by the personal evaluation of the faculty.

The N.H.S. holds as its ideals Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service, which its members pledge and strive to uphold, and by which they are guided.

The Monogram Club seeks to recognize through a student organization those students outstanding in the athletic field, and to promote a high standard of athletics and ideals of good sportsmanship among athletes and spectators. Its members are the recipents of a varsity athletic letter or have been varsity cheerleaders for two years.

OFFICERS

Billy Freuler - Vice-President; Mary Jo Pittman - Secretary-Treasurer; Gus Andrews - President.

Monogram candidate for Homecoming Queen was Judy Thompson.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The F.T.A., promoted by the National Education Association, strives to make young people aware of the needs and opportunities of teaching, promote interest and enthusiasm for this valuable and rewarding profession, and train students for future teaching careers. It also offers financial aid to ambitious and dedicated young people exhibiting promise in this field. Each member of the F.T.A. gains experience by serving as student assistant to a member of the faculty.

The Co-Editors, Mary E. Ruffin and Diana Warren, plan with Business Manager Betsy Fowler the 1962 TAR-BO-RAH.

Each year the annual staff is faced with the responsibility of producing a book which is comprehensive, different, and a lasting store of the memories which make up one year of high school days.

The 1961 Tar-Bo-Rah received second-place honors in its class at the North Carolina Scholastic Press Conference.

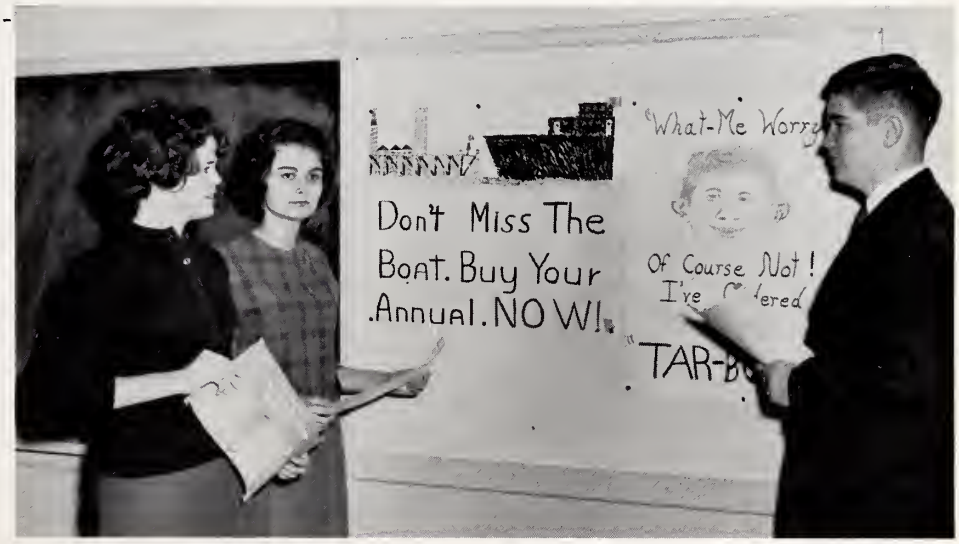
Mrs. Margaret Ruffin supervises the work of editorial staff members Linda Knox, Tommy Ferrell, Daisy Walston, Jinx Kent, Ann Brisson, Carolyn Barnes, Fran McDowell, and Mary Frances Thomas.

RAH STAFF

Staff photographers, Grigg Sheffield and Alan Brill, contributed many snapshots for the annual.

Ann Harrell and Dolly Grimmer undertook the difficult job of typing the annual.

The art staff made posters to promote the sale of annuals.



Jean Truitt, circulation manager, was assisted by James Parker, Jean Newsome, Dottie Boseman and Patricia Wynn in the sale of annuals.
